

principal in charge:
danny osborn

interior designer:
beth philyaw norris

structural engineer:
hodnett/hurst engineers

mechanical engineer:
paul smith

electrical engineer:
o&s enterprise

project data:
Approximately 21,000 SF
$1.9 million

Skyline Elementary School

Skyline, AL

An existing WPA construction project built in the 1930's, Skyline's Elementary School was in need of significant renovation. From the roof to the foundation, the school was renovated and repaired in order to create an up-to-date and comfortable environment for education. The design concept created an interior "roadway" along corridors which lead to classroom entrances fashioned as houses. This building is listed on the Historical Register.

